COMMENTS: Immediately, when it was our turn at the host stand, we were greeted warmly. After asking if we were looking to dine, we were offered the chance to sit at the patio or inside. We selected the inside seating area. The host walked us to our table and let us know about the menu via the QR code on the table. She then wished us to enjoy our meal and let us know our server would be with us shortly.

COMMENTS: Within about a minute of being seated, our server, Allen, approached our table to help us. It was extremely busy in the restaurant. It was incredibly loud and hard to hear at times from the blaring pop music, the general chatter from all the patrons in the space, and the constant ringing of bells, which we soon understood occurred whenever the shot flights seemed to have been ordered, which happened many times during our meal. It made it hard to speak to my guest during the meal at times. My server immediately brought us water, then came back to take our appetizer order along with our cocktail orders. He did not check our IDs. He did not offer any suggestions or attempt to upsell. He definitely did his best to check in on us. We felt taken care of. If I returned to this location, I would definitely ask him if I could.

COMMENTS: Everything we ordered, including drinks, an appetizer, and entrees, came out in a timely fashion after we ordered each of them. We never felt pressured or rushed during our meal. I was halfway expecting that to happen, considering how busy the restaurant was, but they never tried to get out the door before we were ready to. The server and the food runners all checked in with us after the food and drinks were dropped, within three minutes each time, to make sure things were to our liking. The server did not ask if we wanted a second round of drinks. The server was getting pulled in all the different directions to help run the drink flights. The server was dressed in a uniform and looked presentable and well-groomed.

COMMENTS: The food met our expectations. The trio of salsa, queso, and guac was excellent. It was simple but well-executed, and the fresh chips were quite good. Drinks were somewhat on the strong side. The cocktails were heavy with alcohol and did not let the flavors of the drink shine through. Entrees were good. My guest could not stop raving about her burrito bowl, and after I had a few bites of it, I had to agree. I got the birria pizza, and it looked appealing and tasted good. All food presentations were nice.

COMMENTS: The seating areas, walls, and floors of the restaurant dining room were all clean and tidy. The music was blaring in the restaurant as soon as I walked in, and it rarely calmed down during my visit. The temperature was nice and cool, a very welcome way to escape that day's heat. I did not observe any spills during my visit, but I did observe a sink clogged with paper towels in the men's restroom. The restroom itself was fully stocked.

COMMENTS: The restaurant seemed, on the surface, to be more about vibes. Upon trying their food and experiencing the service, I was happy to say that the food was very solid at Rreal Tacos. The service really helped me enjoy my meal as I found out that there was a Senior Prom happening right by our restaurant, and a lot of the clientele eating were having a meal before going to their dance, and packed the place out. Our server and the other staff of the restaurant all took time to check in on us and make sure we were not forgotten, even on the busiest of nights.

After confirming that I wanted to speak to someone at the restaurant, I was immediately transferred over. I requested to know if the restaurant offered a Happy Hour special. After being told that it was not offered, I thanked the employee and ended my call.
