COMMENTS: The restaurant was very crowded when we arrived. We were greeted with a smile and asked for our name and a phone number. We were called back in a much shorter time than we were quoted, which was nice. The hostess did not have a name tag on, but she walked us at an easy pace to our table. She pointed out the QR code for the menus, and also told us that that was how we would pay our bill. As we exited, the host staff told us to have a good night.

COMMENTS: My margarita came out in 4 minutes. My guest's Mexican Coke was never delivered. We were charged for it, but no one ever brought it. We mentioned to the food runner that it was not delivered, but I don't think it was communicated to our server or the kitchen. The elote appetizer came out in 3 minutes. Our entrees came out in 11 minutes. I was not offered a second margarita after I finished mine. Our dessert took 13 minutes to be delivered. We were also delivered chips at the end of our meal that we did not order. Those were removed and given to another table when we mentioned it to the server.

COMMENTS: The margarita was well mixed and tasted smooth. The Mexican Coke was the only disappointment as it was never delivered. The elote was fresh and well-seasoned. The quesadilla had well-seasoned chicken and delicious cheese that was melted well in a tortilla. The birria tacos were crispy with tender meat and flavorful. The dip was delicious to dip into. The Mexican rice was minimally seasoned, but a good portion. The tres leche was a large portion and tasted delicious.

COMMENTS: No one other than Melina and a food runner came to our table. A manager did not come to the table to check on our experience. The two staff at the stand did not appear to be a manager, and no one came through the restaurant checking on tables. The restaurant was extremely busy with patrons waiting, but I did not see anyone who appeared to be a manager, even though we looked.

COMMENTS: This was overall a good experience that met my expectations. There were a few minor issues like the delay in the tres leches cake being delivered, the Coke that was never delivered, and the tampon wrapper on the floor outside the unisex restrooms. Other than that, the food was good, and the service was friendly.
