COMMENTS: When we arrived at the restaurant, there was one group of guests ahead of us who were being seated. We were greeted promptly within 14 seconds of arrival. However, the greeting did not feel warm, friendly, or sincere, as the smile was not genuine and the interaction lacked authenticity, which made us feel less welcomed. The host stand area appeared clean and organized. We were provided only one physical menu and told we could either share it or use the QR code. The host led us to our table, and we sat down at 5:30 PM. She mentioned the QR code, but there was no friendly closing, such as inviting us to enjoy our meal before she returned to the host stand. The restaurant was not full.

COMMENTS: The server did not introduce himself by name, but came right over to greet us after we had sat down, and we did not even have time to really look at the menu, and my guest was just looking up the menu using the QR code. When he approached the table, he greeted us and asked if we wanted drinks; when I said I needed a minute, he offered to bring water and said he would be right back. Our server was energetic, smiled, and appeared attentive during this interaction. He did not ask whether it was our first visit, if we were celebrating anything, or if anyone had any allergies. He came back at 5:34 PM with two glasses of ice water and asked if we wanted any appetizers. We ordered a cheese dip; he said he would bring us complimentary chips and salsa. I ordered a strawberry margarita, and he asked if I had a preference for the alcohol; I told him whatever it normally comes with, and I requested sugar on the rim and a lime. My guest ordered a 26-ounce beer, but the lime was not added to the margarita as requested. He did not ask for our IDs. He appeared very knowledgeable about the menu and took our order, though our order was not repeated back to us.

COMMENTS: The drinks were delivered promptly after ordering, which helped us start the meal comfortably. The server returned at 5:34 PM to take our appetizer order at the table. We ordered a cheese dip, and he mentioned he would bring complimentary chips and salsa as well. The appetizers arrived very quickly, at 5:38 PM, just four minutes after the order was placed. At 5:44 PM, he came by to ask if everything was good; I told him yes, noting that my guest had gone to the restroom. At 5:47 PM, the server took our entree order, but he did not repeat it back to us. Our entrees were delivered at 5:58 PM, with the employee dropping off the food, simply stating what it was and placing it in front of us before leaving. That same employee removed our appetizer plates, but once we finished eating, our empty plates and drinks were left on the table. The server then returned to check on us and asked if everything was okay, to which we confirmed yes. Overall, the pacing of the meal felt balanced and unhurried, and it was not rushed, but not slow either. The server remained attentive throughout, checking back occasionally to ask if we needed anything and ensuring we had everything we needed. I finished my margarita, but I was not asked if I wanted another drink, and the empty glass was not removed. Overall, he managed the table efficiently while also attending to nearby guests, maintaining a professional and presentable appearance in a clean uniform. Our server had positive energy, was friendly, and attentive, which all contributed positively to the dining experience.

COMMENTS: Everything we ordered came out as expected, with hot items hot and cold items cold. The food looked nice on the plate, tasted really good, and everything met or exceeded what we were hoping for. The portion sizes felt right for the price, and the quality of the food matched the restaurant's style. The strawberry margarita was delicious, though I had asked for a lime and did not get it. The salsa and chips were amazing, and the cheese dip was thick and definitely good. Overall, everything we tried was really enjoyable, from the appetizers to the entrees. Between the flavors, portions, and presentation, it made for a very satisfying meal. Everything we ordered was good; there were no issues with any of the food or drinks.

COMMENTS: The dining area, tables, bar, and seating were clean and well-maintained, and the restaurant overall felt comfortable in terms of temperature, lighting, and music volume. The women's restroom, which I visited, had a sink area with water and soap spills, and trash in one of the stalls was overflowing. The men's restroom that my guest visited was clean. The main dining areas were very clean, and I observed two bussers actively cleaning tables and sweeping throughout our visit. Despite the women's restroom, the restaurant overall was well-kept and inviting.

COMMENTS: I observed a manager at the bar making drinks and walking around, as well as moving through the restaurant and helping out at the hostess stand. Although the manager did not come directly to our table, I went up to the bar to ask for a receipt, and the manager assisted me. The manager I spoke with was very nice, smiling, and extremely helpful, which added a positive touch to our experience.

COMMENTS: When we were ready to pay our bill, the server handled the payment at the table. I asked him for a receipt, but he did not return with one, and the last time I saw him, he was on the patio, as there were tables both inside and on the patio. I then went up to the bar to request a receipt, and the manager there assisted me. When we left, the hostess thanked us but did not add any extra comment, such as have a good evening, or invite us to return, and our server also did not invite us to return or wish us a good day/evening.
