COMMENTS: The experience with the hostess was not great. It felt rushed and impersonal. The hostess did not ask us to enjoy our dinner before returning to the host stand. There was hardly any communication from her. She did not mention the QR code menu. This was also not mentioned by our server. The hostess did not smile and did not make thorough eye contact. She was not warm or friendly, and the greeting did not feel sincere.

COMMENTS: Carla was great. She was attentive. However, this turned out to be a little intrusive. She asked if she could get us anything else multiple times throughout the dinner, and it felt a little much. With that being said, I thought the intention to simply be present and to be a great server carried the whole interaction from her. She was kind and cared that we had a great meal. She did offer recommendations.

COMMENTS: Our drinks took 15 minutes to come out. Our server noticed that they were taking longer than they should have and apologized two times before the drinks were delivered. However, everything else felt like it flowed perfectly. Our appetizer was delivered in six minutes. Our entrees were delivered in 14 minutes. Cocktail glasses were not removed during our visit, once we were finished with them. Plates from our appetizer were removed when we were finished with them.

COMMENTS: The margarita on the rocks was poured into a warm glass. The drink was warm even though it had ice in it, so it was not served cold, which would be the correct temperature. It took about half of dinner for the drink to actually be at the temperature it should have been served at, and by that point, it was watered down by the ice melt. Otherwise, everything was tasty, and the food was served at the correct temperatures. The items ordered were trio appetizer, real margarita, classic frozen margarita (With Tajin), quesabirria, grilled chicken taco, grilled shrimp taco.
